CLEVELAND-CLIFFS INC COMMENTS
ON RESTRUCTURING OF STELCO INC.

Cleveland, OH - January 30, 2004 - Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (NYSE:CLF), commented today on Stelco's Order for Protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act in Ontario, Canada. Stelco is an equity participant in three mines managed by Cliffs. Stelco has a 44.6 percent ownership in Wabush Mines, which has facilities in Newfoundland and Quebec, Canada. U.S. subsidiaries of Stelco (which are not believed to have filed for bankruptcy protection) own 14.7 percent of Hibbing Taconite Company-Joint Venture and 15 percent of Tilden Mining Company L.C.

As of the time of the Order, Cliffs had no trade receivables with Stelco, and Stelco was current on its cash funding obligations at all three of the mines named above. It would be premature to speculate on Stelco's actions subsequent to obtaining the Order.

John S. Brinzo, Cliffs' chairman and chief executive officer, said, Cliffs has a long and valued relationship with Stelco which we expect to continue. We are optimistic that Stelco will restructure and emerge a stronger, more competitive steel company.

Cleveland-Cliffs, headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, is the largest producer of iron ore pellets in North America, and sells the majority of its pellets to integrated steel companies in the United States and Canada. The Company operates six iron ore mines located in Michigan, Minnesota and Eastern Canada.

CLIFFS ANNOUNCES ASSUMPTION OF ROUGE SALES CONTRACT BY SEVERSTAL NORTH AMERICA, INC.

Cleveland, OH - February 2, 2004 - Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (NYSE:CLF) announced today that as part of the acquisition of the assets of Rouge Industries, SeverStal North America, Inc. has assumed Cliffs' pellet sales contract with Rouge with minimal modifications. The contract with Rouge provided that Cliffs would be the Company's sole supplier of iron ore pellets through 2012. Cliffs sold 3.0 million tons of pellets to Rouge in 2003.

On October 23, 2003, Rouge filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection, and on January 30, 2004, sold substantially all of its assets to SeverStal North America. SeverStal North America is a U.S. based affiliate of OAO SeverStal which is Russia's second largest steel producer.

John S. Brinzo, Cliffs' chairman and chief executive officer, said, "Cliffs has had a long and valued relationship with Rouge. We congratulate SeverStal on its successful acquisition of the Rouge assets. We look forward to building on our relationship with SeverStal and are very pleased to continue to be the Company's exclusive pellet supplier."
