Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers

On July 8, 2013, Joseph A. Carrabba announced that he will retire as the president and chief executive officer of Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (the “Company”) by December 31, 2013. James F. Kirsch, who currently serves as the lead director on the Company’s Board of Directors (“Board”), was elected non-executive chairman of the Board on July 9, 2013, replacing Mr. Carrabba as chairman.

On and effective July 8, 2013, Laurie Brlas announced her retirement as executive vice president and president, global operations of the Company.

A copy of the press release relating to the retirements of Mr. Carrabba and Ms. Brlas is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

On July 8, 2013, the Board elected Mark E. Gaumond, former Senior Vice Chair – Americas of Ernst & Young, to the Board effective as of July 8, 2013. The Board has determined that Mr. Gaumond has no material relationship with the Company (directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) and is independent within the Company’s director independence standards, which are consistent with the New York Stock Exchange’s director independence standards as currently in effect. Mr. Gaumond has been designated as a “financial expert” as defined by applicable Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations. Effective July 8, 2013, Mr. Gaumond will become a member of the Audit Committee and Compensation and Organization Committee.

As a non-employee director, Mr. Gaumond will receive compensation in the same manner as the Company’s other non-employee directors, which compensation the Company previously disclosed under the heading “Director Compensation” in its most recent proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 1, 2013 (the “2013 Proxy Statement”). Mr. Gaumond will participate in the Company’s Nonemployee Directors’ Compensation Plan (Amended and Restated as of December 31, 2008) (the “Plan”). Pursuant to the Plan, Mr. Gaumond is to receive a prorated annual equity grant of 4,421 restricted shares as calculated using the grant date fair value and also will be entitled to quarterly and per meeting director fees.

The Company also expects to enter into an Indemnification Agreement with Mr. Gaumond, the form of which is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The Indemnification Agreement provides that, to the extent permitted by Ohio law, the Company will indemnify Mr. Gaumond against all expenses, costs, liabilities and losses (including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines or settlements) incurred or suffered by him in connection with any suit in which he is a party or otherwise involved as a result of his service as a member of the Board. The foregoing discussion of the terms of the form of Indemnification Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Indemnification Agreement.

A copy of the press release relating to the appointment of Mr. Gaumond as a director is attached here to as Exhibit 99.2.

NEWS RELEASE

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. Announces CEO Succession Plan

- Joseph Carrabba Announces Plan to Retire as President and CEO by the End of 2013
- James Kirsch Named Non-Executive Chairman
- Laurie Brlas to Retire as EVP & President, Global Operations, Effective Immediately
- Office of the Chairman Formed to Facilitate Smooth Transition

CLEVELAND – July 9, 2013 – Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (NYSE: CLF) (Paris: CLF) today announced that Joseph Carrabba has informed the Board of Directors of his plans to retire as the Company’s president and chief executive officer by Dec. 31, 2013. James Kirsch, who currently serves on Cliffs’ Board as lead director, has been elected non-executive chairman of the Board, effectively immediately, replacing Mr. Carrabba as chairman.

Mr. Carrabba will continue to serve as president and CEO and a Director of the Company until a successor has been elected, after which point he will also step down from the Board. Cliffs’ Board has retained an executive search firm, Heidrick & Struggles, to help identify candidates to lead the Company. To facilitate the transition, Cliffs has formed an Office of the Chairman, led by Mr. Kirsch. The Company also announced today that Laurie Brlas has retired as executive vice president and president, global operations and is leaving the Company, effective immediately.

Mr. Carrabba said, “It has been a privilege to lead this great Company over the last eight years. I am proud of the global operational footprint we have established and believe now is the right time to begin this leadership transition. I look forward to working with the Office of the Chairman during this period as we continue to provide world-class iron ore and coal products to the world’s largest steel markets.”

Mr. Carrabba added, “We thank Laurie for her service over the past seven years as chief financial officer and most recently as executive vice president and president, global operations. We wish her well in her future endeavors.”

Mr. Kirsch said, “We are fortunate to have a strong executive team in place with a deep bench of leadership talent to aid in a seamless transition. On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, I want to thank Joe for his dedication to Cliffs over the last eight years. We greatly appreciate his contributions and look forward to his continued leadership during the transition period ahead.”

Mr. Kirsch continued, “I am honored to have the opportunity to work closely with my fellow board members and Cliffs’ senior management team as non-executive chairman. We are committed to improving our operating performance and increasing our competitiveness in challenging market conditions as we work to create value for our shareholders.”

Second-Quarter 2013 Earnings Conference Call

As previously announced, the Company intends to report its unaudited 2013 second-quarter financial results after the U.S.-market close on Thursday, July 25, 2013. NEWS RELEASE

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. Board Elects New Director

Mark E. Gaumont to Join Company's Board and Serve on Compensation and Audit Committees

CLEVELAND – July 9, 2013 – Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (NYSE: CLF) (Paris: CLF) announced today that its Board of Directors has elected Mark E. Gaumont, 62, former Senior Vice Chair – Americas of Ernst & Young, as a new director. The appointment is effective July 8, 2013. With the addition of Mr. Gaumont, Cliffs' Board will be comprised of a total of 10 directors.

James Kirsch, non-Executive Chairman of Cliffs' Board of Directors, said, "With his strong financial background working with large international companies at both Arthur Andersen and Ernst & Young, Mark is an excellent addition to Cliffs' Board. Mark has worked extensively with senior management and audit committees of many different public and privately held companies."

"I am very pleased to join Cliffs' Board and be part of a highly regarded mining company," stated Mark Gaumont. "I look forward to working with management and my fellow board members to enhance shareholder value."

Mr. Gaumont has functioned as the lead partner on many key accounts, and held senior management positions within two large accounting firms over the course of his career. In 1976, Mr. Gaumont joined Arthur Andersen in New York and was named a Partner in 1986. Over his 27 years with Andersen, Mr. Gaumont was a coordinating partner on Fortune 500 clients. He also served as the Managing Partner of Andersen's Stamford office for eight years.

In 2002, Mr. Gaumont joined Ernst & Young's New York office. He was appointed Americas Senior Vice Chair, in 2006 where he oversaw all revenue generating activities for the Americas. Previously, Mr. Gaumont worked with several large multinational clients and served as the Managing Partner of Ernst & Young's San Francisco Office. He was a member of Ernst & Young's Americas Executive Board and served on the Ernst & Young Partner Advisory Council. He also was Senior Advisory Partner for several of the firm's largest clients.

Mr. Gaumont received a Master of Business Administration from the Leonard N. Stern School of Business, New York University. He received his A.B. in Government from Georgetown University. Currently, he serves as director for Booz Allen Hamilton and Rayonier, Inc. He is a former trustee of the California Academy of Sciences.
